WHEN TIME STANDS STILL

HERITAGE LE CHÂTEAU

LIFE IN A CHÂTEAU

STRAIGHT OUT OF THE "PAUL ET VIRGINIE" CLASSIC EPOCH,
THIS HISTORIC DWELLING EMBODIES A DECOR FROM YESTERYEAR.

Heritage Le Château is one of the architectural wonders of Mauritius. Commissioned by the Indian notable Hajee Jackaria Hajee Ahmed, this jewel was raised in the 19th century on an island then part of the British Empire. The Château still keeps a precise memory from this era, and is now a testimony to history. This building has passed through times without losing of its unique British-Indian elegance. Faithful to this rich past, Heritage Le Château has been restored and the gardens refurbished in 2017.

ACCOMMODATION

A symbol of the British-Indian way of life, the suite of the Chateau ensures a journey through time. Spending one night in this place of fine woodwork where intermingle Venetian chandeliers, silverware, porcelain vases and four-poster beds with immaculate sheets, and you'll feel like the lord of the house.

ABOUT MAURITIUS

The island of Mauritius is situated 3,000 km to the east of the African continent. The diversity of its landscape extends over an area of 1,865 km². Its superb coastline, 160 km long, its multicoloured coral reef and its picturesque mountains make it the jewel of the Indian Ocean. With average temperatures of 22°C in winter and 31°C in summer in the coastal regions, the island is an ideal year-round destination. The "rainbow" population consists of approximately 1.3 million inhabitants of various ethnic origins, from India, China, Africa and Europe.
